THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE SITUATION—THROUGH RADICAL SPECTACLES.

Theodore Tilton, in this week's Independent, is urged by a friend to use his pen briskly, "to prepare the nation for the coming inevitable impeachment of President Johnson." Theodore tells his friend that no preparation is ready, the Universal World (Radical) being ready for it. He adds the following method to accomplish it instantly:

"If it could be now thoroughly understood (as it ought to be) that the Republican party means to omit from the list of Presidential candidates next summer all its Senators, Governors and Generals, who are now opposing the impeachment of the President, all such opposition would instantly cease, and the President would be speedily put out of the way."

Theodore then publishes a communication from a Chicago correspondent, which is characterized as speaking the views of many advisers, which correspondent discourses in the following strain:

"War is imminent. You know it. All clear-sighted men know it. Capitalists realize it. Gold feels it, and jumps to 145¾ in your city. The masses understand it.—The press has sounded the alarm. Everybody is anxious, save copperheads and rebels, who have their "calling and election sure" in Andrew Johnson. The rebels understand that war is coming.

But how can the President be checked? How can the loyal masses confront him? How can the people say to Andrew Johnson, Thus far shalt thou go, and no further? How can they demonstrate to him that the people rule?

The people have a representative body in the Government—Congress. But Congress is dispersed. Have the people no other servants? Yes. They have State Legislatures. Through them they can speak, and more—act. Hence I urge upon you, as a controlling power over public sentiment, to think of the proposition that has been made in the West calling for a Convention of the loyal Governors.

I heartily sympathize with the call. The Governors can summon their legislatures together in extraordinary session. These State legislators will be fresh from the people.—They will be the mouth pieces of the people, and as such can instruct the Governors to call a Convention. The Governors, then, backed by their Legislatures, representing the loyal masses, can with power and right declare to the President that they will prevent him by force, if necessary, from bringing on a new war.

General Grant, although I regard him as only a mere "protest," is in a position to help save the country. If he finds that the people are thoroughly organized, through their State Governors, who can command a million bayonets, he will be more inclined to disobey the President's military orders than if those bayonets lay in State arsenals unrepresented.

Something must be done at once. Johnson means revolution. Revolution can be met only by another. It may be necessary before November to imprison Mr. Andrew Johnson, to save us from war, or prevent the surrender of Washington to the Maryland rebels. Who can do it? General Grant. By whose orders? The people's, transmitted through their State Governors."

Theodore does not share the alarm of his correspondent, but says, if Andrew Johnson make an attempt at war against the republic, let him be tried by a court-martial, and shot by twelve soldiers, in a hollow square.

So we go.

GENERAL MOWER'S ORDER.

A gentleman recently from Louisiana, and well acquainted with the condition of affairs in that State, called on us yesterday to bear his personal testimony to the false and calumnious character of the statement in the Chronicle of yesterday, relative to the order of General Mower forbidding armed assemblies within that district. The Chronicle assumes that this order refers to organizations having in view a revival of the rebellion, and got up in the interest of the disloyal. It is the slight and only foundation upon which it rests its latest startling development of a new traitorous conspiracy to overturn the Government by armed force. Now, the truth is, that the armed meetings referred to in General Mower's order are those of the negroes who, under the direction of agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and of the Radical committees, are in the habit of meeting in secret assembly in the towns and villages, and posting armed sentinels within and on the outskirts to challenge and intercept all persons who may be going to and from their several duties. So great an evil and nuisance had this become in Louisiana that the planters in a body petitioned General Sheridan to abate it.—Hence this order. In further evidence of the falsity of this statement, we may state the well-known fact that negroes alone in Louisiana are permitted to bear arms and organize into political and secret assemblies.—National Intelligencer.

HUMORS OF REGISTRATION.—I was conversing a few days ago with a very intelligent mulatto who fills the position of registrar at one of the parish precincts about thirty miles from the city, and was much struck with the views he expressed concerning the practical effects of the registry upon future elections. He remarked that of the country negroes whom he had seen transformed into legal voters he believed at least a third would forfeit their newly acquired privilege by reason of their inability to remember the names under which they registered. Under the slavery regime surnames were a luxury altogether unknown to the blacks; but as Pompey, Cæsar, July and Friday were hardly sufficiently distinctive appellations for the registry lists, it became necessary to improvise and affix a surname to every applicant for the franchise. In most cases this was done very simply by assigning to bewildered coffee the surname of his late master; but in very many instances the most fanciful or ridiculous names were bestowed, with a strict injunction to the recipients to hold fast to their new titles, though their incapacity to recall them five minutes later was perfectly apparent. I was assured that such names as Humbug, Munchausen, and Sancho Panza, figure frequently and conspicuously on the list. While the field hands are as eager to register as their less benighted brethren in the towns and cities, few of them have any definite idea of the object of the process. The impression is almost universal among them that it is an operation somehow preliminary to their obtaining an allotment of the lands of their late masters; and it is a common thing to find them slyly bespeaking from the registrars the selection of a good tract. Disputes often arise on the important question whether the Government is to furnish mules as well as lands—the negro logic running somehow in this wise: "For what's de use of bein' sot free widout lands? And what's the use of de lands widout mules?" These and a thousand incidents equally ludicrous are of daily occurrence at every precinct in the interior.—Charleston letter to New York Times.

A person entitled to know something about the subject has told us that one of the most intricate and valuable ciphers used by the rebel government in communicating with their spies in the North, in the early times of the war, consisted merely in the application of the Sanscrit alphabet to the spelling of the English words; that is to say, the words used in the secret dispatches were English, but the Sanscrit characters were employed in their formation. All that was necessary for any person to read and understand the dispatches was simply for him to learn the Sanscrit alphabet, which can be done very quickly; but of course our officers were not in that secret. As the number of persons in this country who know Sanscrit is exceedingly small, the rebels carried on this ingenious system for a long time with impunity. We may remark that the idea of applying to one language the characters of another in this way was not novel with the rebels. We have seen in this city a very curious book, printed in England in the early part of this century, in which, for a particular reason, the Greek character is applied to the spelling of English words throughout the entire volume.—N. Y. Times.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st. 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1867.

We ask again, can the Conservatives and moderate Republicans be induced to unite in one organization upon existing issues? Unless the moderate Republicans will agree to meet us in a Convention, none should be called, for if the Conservatives meet alone, and effect an organization of their own, with a view of running in between them and the Radicals, it will almost certainly result in healing the breach between them. Otherwise the Conservative wing of the Republican party will continue to acquire strength until it will become formidable. The Conservatives will hold the balance of power between them, and by co-operating with the moderate Republicans can easily defeat the Radicals. We have presented the various phases of the case, and leave it to thinking men to determine what course should be pursued—what course will be most likely to accomplish the great object aimed at. We, however, can see no objections to County organizations. They can do no harm, and may do much good. In many Counties Conservatives can be elected, in others moderate Conservatives, in others moderate Republicans, if the proper course be pursued.—Old North State.

The Sentinel did not originate the movement of a new party, nor did it originate with the politicians, but really with the working-men, who, looking to the certain baleful influences of the Brownlow-Holden-Radical programme upon the recuperative energy of the State, became anxious, if possible, to stave off and prevent its direful consequences.

The Old North State and the Sentinel are laboring for the same result, the only difference being the manner of doing it. Neither the Old North State nor the Sentinel believe it wise, or proper, or desirable, even, that the Reconstruction Acts should be defeated by the Conservatives of North Carolina, if they had the power to do it. No present good, at least, could be secured to the people of North Carolina, now suffering from the uncertainties of the situation, by their defeat by the Conservatives. We hold ourselves pledged to obey the laws and in no way to obstruct their execution. If any Conservative or Radical supposes that we mean obstruction, he is mistaken. We have no such aim or purpose.

If there were sensible, consistent and true men enough among the moderate Republicans in North Carolina, who could be relied upon to carry out the Reconstruction Acts, and no more, in the formation of the new Constitution, we believe there is not a Conservative in North Carolina who would trouble himself with the matter. So far as we understand them, Conservative Constitutional Union men cannot endorse the Reconstruction Acts, or the Howard amendment, as wise, or safe, or best, or constitutional; they submit to them as the law and as the will of Congress, as part and parcel of the war measures of the Radical party. Therefore, we conclude, if the Conservatives of the State knew that the violent, vindictive, and unscrupulous ultra Radical wing of the Republican party could be beaten by the moderate and consistent Republicans, they would be glad to wash their hands of the whole matter, and let the two wings of the Republican party fight it out single-handed.

We say that no sound Conservative Constitutional Union man can endorse the Reconstruction Acts, or Howard Amendment, as wise, or safe, or best, or Constitutional. Therefore, we do not think, with the Old North State, that Conservatives could consistently go into a Republican Convention of moderate Republicans, nor do we think that consistent moderate Republicans could go into a Convention of Conservatives. So far as all party affiliation is concerned, they cannot mingle or consolidate. They are apart and ought to remain apart, because they are as distinct and as separate in their views of political public policy as two parties can be. But against moderate Republicans, who are honest and consistent, Conservatives have no bitterness of feeling.—So far from this, we understand that this movement of the Conservatives was not thought of until the developements of the purposes and aims of the violent, proscriptive and bitter wing of the Radicals, were openly made in the late Radical Convention. That Convention proved that it was determined, by the proscriptive wing, that the moderate Republicans should be put down. They were completely overslaughed by the violent wing of the party. The Conservatives believe that the moderate Republicans are more reliable and their aims are less vindictive, than those of the other wing.—Hence, in a choice between the two, the Conservatives will always prefer the consistent, moderate Republicans. But they can form no party affiliation or combination with either. If we cannot defeat ultra vindictive Radicals for the Convention, by running honest, calm, consistent Conservatives, and are compelled to make a choice between moderate and ultra Radicals, we shall always prefer the former to the latter. These views we believe to accord with those of nine-tenths of the real Conservative men of the State, and we hope they are explained plainly enough for all to understand us. We are Conservative, and we are Republican, too, as that word was understood in the times of the fathers of the Republic; but no man shall call us "Republican," in the modern sense and use of that much abused term, by our consent.

WE SHALL publish the new Cotton Regulations to-morrow, if they shall have been received in printed form. The report of them by telegraph, though transmitted with remarkable fidelity, considering all things, is confused in some particulars; and we, therefore, prefer to await their authentic publication.

THE RALLY OF THE CONSERVATIVES.

We publish, to-day, a call of the Conservative Constitutional Union men, for a public meeting to be held in this City, at the Court House, on Friday evening next, at half past 7 o'clock. It will be seen that it embraces the largest list of names among the working men, ever before made in this City. There are hundreds in the City who are with the movement, heart and soul, who could not be seen in time. Gentlemen from other Counties, and our friends in the County, strongly sympathize with the movement, and we trust it will be followed up by similar meetings at all the registration precincts in every County in the State.

We have heard of two objections to the movement. Some persons prefer that the word "Holden" should be stricken out in the expression "the Brownlow-Holden Radical programme." There is no reference whatever in that expression to the persons of the individuals known as "Brownlow" or "Holden," but to their known principles and public policy. The meeting, we affirm, has, in no part of its design, any reference to opposition to reconstruction, or to that kind of reconstruction which moderate Republicans are pledged to carry out, but it is opposition to that kind of reconstruction carried out in Tennessee by the Brownlowites, and that kind of reconstruction designed to be carried out in this State, by the Holdenites. Therefore, no two words could so significantly express the real purpose of the movement, as the two employed. It would have required at least six additional lines to express the ideas contained in these two words.

Some others think the movement premature. We honestly differ with all such, and believe they will find out their mistake when it is too late. The Radicals are fully organized, and the tameness and inactivity of the moderate Republican wing of that party, as well as the supineness and indifference of the Conservatives hitherto, have operated severely to the prejudice of a moderate, safe and conciliatory policy in this State. Moreover, were the Conservatives to continue to remain silent and indifferent, the result would be to drive thousands of men, who feel an interest and will take part on one side or the other, into the Radical ranks. No consistent Conservative, as we have shown in another article, could do this, yet thousands who do not think of ultimate results would be sure to give way to the strongest current.

The young men who have had charge of the list did not present it to any of our colored friends to sign, simply for the reason, that while many of them are known to be opposed to violent and ultra measures, yet they have not publicly announced themselves as Conservative Constitutional Union men. All such, therefore, are invited to co-operate with us, who feel willing to do so. The invitation to the meeting makes no distinction as to color, but simply invites the co-operation of all conservative Constitutional Union men, and none others.

"CALL NO MAN Master, but your Maker," said Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, in some of his addresses to the blacks of the South, on the occasion of his stumping tour last Spring. The advice was well enough; certainly, we have no objection to it. The former slaves having been emancipated, and relieved from their dependence upon their immediate owners, it is proper that, in view of their new relations, they should discard the appellation which expressed that dependence and recognized their vassalage.—Indeed, while the whites of the South are pleased at every exhibition of respect and confidence on the part of their former slaves, and are prompt to meet it with kindness and good-will, we believe that, as a general rule, the old expression which betokened servitude grates upon their ears rather harshly than otherwise.

Senator Wilson was apt to interject the same speeches, in which he gave this counsel, (and which, we repeat, was unobjectionable in letter, whatever may have been the spirit which prompted it,) with Pharisaical eulogiums upon New England, where no man ever called another "master," but where humanity stood erect, looking the world in the face and challenging perfect equality and the full recognition of its manhood. All of which looks well on paper, and sounded euphonously as it was rounded into periods by the speaker, but every intelligent man knows that there is as broad a distinction of classes in Massachusetts as any that ever separated the two races in the South, and that, although the mere name of Master has been unused in that State, the fact of slavery which it covered and implies exists nowhere more decidedly than in its factories and among the more menial of its laboring population.

But while the blacks of the South are told, as is most unquestionably the case, and as there was, therefore, no necessity for telling them, that they have no masters, we perceive that a Federal officer in Arkansas has completely turned the tables, and set up the claim that the people of the victorious States, as represented by the Federal army, are the "masters" of the white people of the South! True, this popinjay was severely rebuked by Gen. Ord for his impertinence, but, while he had not sense enough to make his meaning plain without the use of degrading terms, it is nevertheless too true that the whole theory of Radical reconstruction is proceeding upon just such an assumption. The more ultra and malevolent of that party would even make the whites the slaves of their former serfs, by compelling a transfer of property as well as a bestowal of superior political privileges!

The people of the South are poor and prostrate, humiliated and broken, but they acknowledge no masters,—and, least of all, such masters, as those who would impudently affect the relation.

IT IS SAID that there are more negro votes registered in Louisiana, than there are negroes of all sexes and ages in the State.

Colonel Gilbert, who announced himself as one of the masters of the people, will, it is said, be tried for a violation of the articles of war.

To the Conservative Constitutional Union Men of Wake County.

The undersigned, citizens of Wake County, friends of the American Union and supporters of the Constitution of the United States, being convinced that the incorporation of the Brownlow-Holden-Radical programme into the Constitution of the State would most surely embarrass, if not annihilate, all enterprise and all hope of recuperation, and would discourage all immigration, the investment of capital and diminish or destroy the sources of employment to our laboring population, do most earnestly implore all Conservative citizens of every County in the State, to hold meetings for the adoption of such plans as they may deem wisest and best, for uniting and consolidating the Conservative influence in the State, to effectively prevent the success of ultra Republican or Radical rule in our State organization.

The Congress of the United States has cut us off from all participation at present in National politics. Nothing is left us but the care of our State institutions, and this movement has nothing to do with National politics or with hindering or attempting to obstruct the operation of any law of Congress. It has simple reference only to the preventing of the incorporation of those Radical principles and measures into our State organization, which would place the control and government of the State in the hands of the ignorant, the vicious and the most unprincipled among us, which would certainly result in the destruction of the enterprise and vitality of the State. All the aid or encouragement, therefore, which this movement could give to the friends of Constitutional liberty and free government, elsewhere, would be simply incidental.

We, therefore, urge all Conservative Constitutional Union men of the County of Wake, holding these views, to unite with us in holding a meeting at the Court House in this city, on Friday evening, the 27th. of the present month, at half past 7 o'clock, to effect the above named object, and we urge our fellow citizens of the several registration precincts in the County to unite with us, or hold meetings in their several precincts.

HOW REGISTRATION STANDS.

We are repeatedly asked, verbally and by letter, what are the results of registration in this State, so far. It is impossible to arrive at even an approximate estimate, with any degree of accuracy. The Registrars, throughout the State, are now engaged in making their second and revisory rounds, and the probability is that these will cause a very considerable change in the aggregates of the first registration. Besides this, there has been exhibited great indifference in furnishing returns for publication. From the Western part of the State, for instance, we have had the results in but five or six Counties.

When registration shall have been finally completed, we will make an effort to obtain from the District Commander a full and detailed statement, by Counties, of the result.

Meanwhile, our conviction remains unshaken that the white majority in the State will be decided,—larger, for example, than it is in Virginia. In the latter State, the white majority is said to be about 15,000.

FACTS FOR COLORED FOLKS.—There has been a comparatively large immigration of Northern people to the Valley; they have invested their money here, and more are coming. They all wish to come South, and prefer the Valley because the number of colored people is so small in proportion to the whites. The prejudice of the working white man North against the negro is intense, and he is the man who will settle up the South. He or his friends fought for free white labor, and they won. The first question a white immigrant from the North asks is: "You ain't bothered with the niggers here are you?" Finding we in the Valley are not, he buys land and settles. These facts should teach colored folks something. They should study over them, and make themselves the best laboring class in the world. They should stick to their old friends, and avoid voting and politics.—Valley Virginian.

POLITICAL MATTERS IN VIRGINIA.—Despatches from Richmond state that preparations are being made for the Convention of ex-United States officers and soldiers to be held there on the 25th instant. Letters have been received by the Executive Committee from all portions of the State, and the prospect is that there will be a full Convention. The Hunnicutts held a meeting last night and appointed two of their most radical men as delegates to the Convention.

The lines between the two wings of the Republican party in Virginia, it is said, are being sharply drawn. One wing is in favor of adopting the constitutional amendment proposed by Congress as a platform of the party, and of going into the canvass at the approaching election on this platform; the other wing goes for confiscation and the extremest measures of the radicals in every particular.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

NEW BERN, Sept. 23rd. 1867.

PUBLIC EXECUTION.

Vulgar curiosity for the past month has been on the qui vive for the execution of Banvester Haywood. Sixteen months ago this miscreant walked into a store and playfully shot down a negro woman. On Friday, at 12 m., his soul flitted into uncertainty for eternity.

The execution was conducted privately in the city jail yard, under the supervision of Deputy Sheriff Ballenger—Sheriff Fleming being confined to bed.

Haywood confessed to the crime, but plead insanity caused by excessive intoxication. One of his last acts was to prepare an address to his fellow-citizens, warning them to avoid the use of strong drink.

In this address he expresses great penitence and thanks his Counsel, Messrs. Green and Clark, for procuring his respite from the Governor; whom he also thanks.

There was no confusion or disturbance at the execution; but it is to be regretted that, owing to the faulty construction of the scaffold, Haywood lived over nine minutes after the drop fell.

AN OLD SUBJECT IN A NEW LOCALITY.

Registration has been finally completed in the city, and we suppose the country generally. The organ of the "loyal portion of this community" felicitates its readers on the fair and impartial manner with which the operations of the different Boards of Registrars have been conducted in Craven county. Praise coming from such a source would probably not "thrust" greatness upon any man; but as usual, in this case, it is almost vice versa to actual fact. It is unquestionable that nearly all the blacks within a circuit of ten miles have registered within our city limits. A gentleman informed us yesterday that the freedmen on his plantation had been notified (he did not know whether officially or no) that unless they reported in Newbern to register, they would be fined one dollar each. The result was his farm hands left him in a body, and came eight miles to this city, on foot, and were registered. The "notification," referred to, was probably only some report given out by radical wire-workers, in order to secure as large a number of negro voters as possible for the charter elections; but the Boards who registered the ignorant creatures were culpable, if they were aware of the circumstances.

Then again, we are informed that many local officers have been rejected whose right to register was distinctly set forth in Gen Sickles' circular of August 26th—viz: inspectors, health officers, deputy sheriffs, &c. For example, we may mention that we have seen a petition, drawn up by our esteemed townsman, W. H. Oliver, Esq., to be forwarded to Gen. Canby, and setting forth the following facts: Mr. Oliver made early application at the registering polls, and after frankly informing the Board that he had, some fifteen years before, held the office of a city Commissioner, was nevertheless permitted to register. A number of days afterwards he was informed that his name had been stricken from the lists.—Fast upon the heels of this came Gen. Sickles' explanatory circular, containing the paragraph "municipal or town officers having authority to enforce mere local ordinances in the nature of police regulations for the preservation of order, the regulation of trade, and abatement of nuisances, or other strictly corporate matters (i. e. city Commissioners) are not within the disfranchising provisions of the act." Mr. Oliver, thereupon, made a second application, but was told the Board had closed the polls for this ward, and would not restore his name. It is estimated that there are fifty men in this city, alone, who have been excluded for similar causes, and Mr. Oliver deserves the thanks of the white men of the community for endeavoring to have the matter righted.

A NEW NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.

Among the on dits, with a tolerable foundation, is the prospect of the revival of the old Commercial, under the conduct of Col. W. J. Clarke, of Boon Hill, and John Spelman. It is understood that the new sheet will be simply weekly and tri weekly for the present. Col. C., as principal proprietor, will have editorial management, and will, doubtless, have the assistance of his talented and accomplished lady, Mrs. Mary Bayard Clark, —"Tenella"—equally admired in social and literary circles. However, the matter is still in embryo, we believe.

AN ENTERPRISING FIRM.

We enclose you herewith the advertisement of one of our first class commission houses—Messrs. Walker, Farrar & Co. These gentlemen do a leading business in the tobacco trade in this city, and are agents for all the principal manufacturers in North Carolina and Virginia. We rarely pass their establishment without noticing great activity in selling and buying—drays constantly going and coming from the door.—They however deal in other things besides tobacco—flour, pork, &c. We recommend them to the readers of the Sentinel wishing to trade in Newbern.

ABSQUATULATING.

Just opposite Newbern, trans-Trent, lies a considerable tract of land belonging to the estate of the late Col. Peter E. Evans. Returning refugees "after the war" found these broad acres, they remembered as good cotton land, covered with log huts; in which were huddled a mass of half starved fugitive slaves, numbering perhaps 20,000. This "war colony" rejoiced in the name of James City, and prospered exceedingly under the management of the Freedmen's Bureau; from which it drew rations and clothing, with immunity from land tax or labor, and the right to do nothing at public expense. Recently, however, the estate has been turned over to its proprietor or administrator; and already his agent is in the field after ground rents, &c. Of course none of the blacks pay; but many leave.—The population of James city has dwindled from 20,000 to 2,000. May it continue to dwindle!

NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL.

We have conversed with a number of gentlemen from Hyde, Onslow, and Beaufort Counties, within the past week, from whom we learn that the fears entertained some time ago that the crops in those Counties would be an utter failure, are happily not verified by the more advanced stages of the season. It is probable there will be a great falling off from the yield of some of the more favorable years, but, as was remarked, "we can take care of ourselves and a County or two additional, if it comes to a pinch."

R. A. S.

THE COMING DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Quite a number of Pennsylvania politicians are in town to-day, and they all agree on the certainty of a Democratic victory in the State at the October election. Philadelphia city will assuredly go Democratic. The Radical municipal ticket is obnoxious to every decent man in the corporate limits, while that nominated by the Conservatives is composed of soldiers, and is unusually popular among the opposition. A delegation of Pennsylvania Conservatives had a satisfactory interview with the President to-day.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

A criminal lawyer in Chicago had his house robbed of two hundred dollars on Friday last by a thief whom he had successfully defended from a charge of larceny.

STATE NEWS.

—Arrangements are being perfected with the Raleigh & Gaston, North Carolina, Petersburg & Weldon, and Wilmington & Weldon Railroads, for the transportation, at half-price, of persons visiting the approaching Fair at Henderson, and articles intended for exhibition.

——The Registrars in Davie County have completed their labors. The whole number of voters registered in the county is Whites, 885; Colored, 486—total, 1371. White majority, 399. Nearly the entire vote of the county is registered.

——Ex-Gov. Vance has been on a visit to South Carolina, where he has been received with marked attention. At Columbia, an impromptu but pleasant interview took place, at the residence of Col. Childs, between Gov. Vance and Gov. Orr, Gen. Hampton, Hon. James G. Gibbes, Major Preston, and others.

——Mrs. Jno. D. Flanner died very suddenly, in Newbern, on Friday. Her death is universally lamented in the community.

——We learn, from the Elizabeth City Transcript, that a negro orator, by the name of Hathaway, is making speeches in that section, who appears to be an "exception." That paper says:

"Hathaway takes strong grounds against universal suffrage, and urges the proper qualifications to be based upon intelligence. He spurns corruption of the Jury-box, but plainly predicts such results, if carried out in accordance with the recent revision of our courts.

Altogether, his speech was timely and appropriate, and was, we learn, delivered in a calm and dispassionate manner. The speaker, we have been informed, was a liberated slave from the county of Chowan, and now resides in the State of New Jersey, where he emigrated upon being set free.—He spoke from his experience of the Southern people, and assured his friends that their only true friends would be found in the Southern States, and that those friends would be their former masters.

We truly hope Hathaway can make it convenient to visit this place, and address the colored people of this section, for we verily believe his visits through the country will be conducive of much real good."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1867.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—North Carolina Tobacco Ware House; Walker, Farrar & Co., Wholesale Grocers and General Commission and Forwarding Merchants, Newbern, N. C. We invite particular attention to the announcement of this enterprising and excellent House.

Agricultural Ware House, Labor-Saving Pump, &c.: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Academy of the Visitation, B. V. M., Abingdon, Va: The exercises commenced on the 16th. The praiseworthy object of those having this Academy in charge is announced, together with terms, &c., in the Prospectus, in our advertising columns.

See list of appointments by the Collector of Revenue for the First District of North Carolina.

Red and White Ash Coal: Douglas Bell, Market Square.

Sugars of various grades: Pullium, Jones & Co.

PROFESSOR ST. MAUR.—The first exhibition of this gentleman in Magic and Ventriloquism, at Tucker Hall, last evening, was attended by quite a large and brilliant audience, and went off with much eclat. The expectations which were created by the representations of the Virginia press were fully met. Mr. St. Maur's Ventriloquial powers are really amazing, while his feats of legerdemain are very interesting and curious. The audience were pleased, and we have no doubt but that his second appearance this evening will be greeted with a full house. Prof. St. Maur will visit Wilmington, after leaving this city.

HAYES' STORE.—The completed registration at this precinct, in this County, stands: Whites 81, Blacks 35.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We are glad to learn that this Institution is in a flourishing condition. The number of students, at present, is somewhat larger than at any time since the close of the war. The University or elective system is already in full operation. The work of endowing the College is progressing favorably, and it is probable that the sum of $100,000 will be secured at no distant day. This result has been accomplished, in the main, by active canvassing,—the only effective plan, under our present circumstances, of building up the fortunes of any Institution.

The buildings have recently been covered with tin, and the rooms, &c., are now undergoing thorough repairs.

Every friend of learning in the State will be rejoiced to learn of the flattering prospects of Wake Forest College.

THE COTTON WORM.—We regret to learn that this destructive insect has seized hold of the Cotton all around us. We are not sufficiently versed in such matters to say what amount of damage it is capable of effecting, at this late stage of the crop, but we fear that it may be considerable. Will not some of our farmers enlighten us on the subject?

The telegraph reports the general destruction of the Sea Island crops. It is now certain that the average crop of the South will fall short of even the lowest estimates that have been made.

OX DIT.—That Gen. Canby will shortly visit this City, and other points in this Military District.

NEW RACE COURSE.—We learn that Dr. P. Babcock, of this City, in connection with other gentlemen, contemplates the construction of a race-course on the Eastern suburbs of the City, after the most improved fashion. It is to be handsomely fenced, with every appropriate and necessary building. All the facilities for training horses and for the establishment of a riding-school are to be provided, and the whole, indeed, is to be gotten up in the best style of such enterprises. Further announcement will be made in due time.

The Washington correspondent of the London Morning Herald says that it is well known here that Mr. Seward's friendship for Mr. Stanton is founded upon fear. Mr. Stanton possesses some secrets that Mr. Seward would not, for the world, have made known. If Mr. Stanton would, he might give to the public a startling story of "inside events" in which Mr. Seward has played a conspicuous and not very creditable part. There is a chapter of the Mexican history with which Mr. Stanton is familiar, and if this were known to the world, it is probable that some people who have heretofore defended Mr. Seward would be compelled to another course.

Mrs. Mumford, the widow of the unfortunate custom-house officer who was cruelly murdered by Beast Rutler at New Orleans during the early part of the war, is now living in great destitution in the town of Wytheville.—Abingdon Virginian.

For the Sentinel.

THAT CONVENTION.—ITS ORATORS.

Messrs. Dockery and Holden.—The attempt to separate the Siamese Twins would be hazardous. It is almost impossible to discover these two eminent orators, the big-bugs of "the Southern White element" in a reruns of the doings of that glorious day.—Their historic and rhetorical resemblances are rather slight indeed, and their dissemblances marked and peculiar. Though indissolubly bound together by abdominal influences, and a month-watery hankering after the spoils, Plutarch himself could not well measure the one by the other, except by their contrasts. Each is worthy of a separate essay; and full justice can be done to either only by a pains-taking survey in severalty of his own great individual eminences. Still they have latterly so grown together, have been so fraternally united and fastened together, and after a manner (metaphorically speaking) so resemblant to the stomachic ligature that connects the Asiatic brothers, that it would be almost impossible to give Chang a tumble, without carrying corporally with him the indissoluble Eng. Let us then, by way of preliminary skirmish, devote a few moments to the loving couple conjointly, leaving to some future occasion the investigation of the peculiar merit of each, as exhibited on this memorable occasion. And so, though we are obliged to speak of them together, after the manner of Plutarch aforesaid, let it be remembered that though they are not much alike, and cannot be artistically compared with each other, each per se is incomparable, and each, like the old lady's boy Gershom, when taken by himself, is—"jest alike." Both are alike in their aspirations after greatness, past, present and future—though with a slight difference in the success of their past efforts.

The one tried once to be Governor—and could'nt. The other has made sundry trials before the people with most humiliating results—but succeeded at last in being made a sort of Governor, in a strange sort of way—just enough of a Governor to spoil him.

Gen. Dockery has escaped being spoiled by actual gubernatorial honors. The notable Ex. P. G. has won these honors, and played such fantastic tricks before high heaven that they blushed blue around his brow—throwing a dark molasses tinge below.—Neither will ever be spoiled again—though both are chasing the rainbows now in their green old age, with childish eagerness and glee.

The one panted for the presidency of this illustrious assembly, and thought that, by mounting that fence, he could catch the rainbow's tail, or peradventure grasp the moon, if he could only lay one hand on her nether horn. But the "Northern white element" topped him over before he had got half way up the fence, with very significant intimations that the old top rails were now, and were to be, for a while, in the mud; and so the rainbow lifted her leg off the fence for a season, and the pale moon moved on in her course, smiling at the simplicity of aspiring mortals. She also is believed to have winked one eye at the fun of the thing. But it was Nojoque to the distinguished statesman, whom a wicked newspaper used to call "Old Gwanny."

The other had been cunningly instructed by the renowned naturalist, 'ycleped Font Taylord, Esq. He had learnt in time that there are mysteries—deep mysteries among God's works. He had long ago learned the art of stooping to rise. He was made aware that success sometimes attends underground operations. Witness the mole—and Gen. Grant. He had practical experience that a little savory congenial globe may be rolled and rounded together by a little harmonious and conjoint pushing and pulling. The laborious patient June Bug may serve as the model. He had also been informed in flowing verse, that a near kinsman of ours may by persevering efforts climb up a pole to a considerable height—not much thinking or seeming to care what remarks might be made on his elevation by irreverent youngsters below. He would go up—and up—and the higher up he went the more he—ought not to have gone up so high. Guided by these and similar lessons learned from creeping things, he asked only the Premiership of the grand State juggling committee. Great skill hath he at managing the papers—well knoweth he the art of shuffling—and cutting—and dealing.—Only somehow it has generally happened that some interloper walked up and pocketed the prize. Some people there be in this world who are too smart—who outwit themselves, and who are laughed at for their pains.

The one lost the Presidency—and all hope with it.

The other is cured the Premiership by attempting to kick his venerable brother downstairs.

Both are unpardoned rebels, and it is mortifying to see the white Northern element lay their forefingers along their sharp nasals and say as hilariously as we used to say in glorious 1840—K. K. K. Time enough yet.

Both are industrious manufacturers of Sumner's patent liquid blacking, and have exquisite skill in putting the shine on the Freedmen's boots. It is true that for want of practice they soil and bespatter their own linen sadly, and sully their own white hands in the new work. It is also equally true that the gratified Freedmen laugh in their old blue sleeves at the clumsy manifestations of these patriarchal apprentices to this humble but honest vocation, and sometimes admit with a genuine Congo grin, that it is some what conjectural—the scheme of making polished gentlemen out of such hard customers. But they both rub away energetically—and the boots shine lustrously—and the happy negroes smile complacently—and those who are not negroes hand round the hat. "Da Balsamic Obolum."

S.

JUDGE CHASE AND THE PRESIDENCY.—Chief Justice Chase seems determined to be President. He made a high bid to-day for the radical vote. In alluding to the powers of Congress over the question of reconstruction, he said Congress possessed the entire power, including that of confiscation, and that, should there be a slip up on the present reconstruction acts, he had no doubt a law confiscating Southern property would be passed. This is certainly a step forward of the position occupied by the Chief Justice while holding his Circuit Court in the State of North Carolina. Then he recognized the rights of the Southern States under the Constitution. He now seems to be stealing Mr. Stevens' thunder, and talks outside of the Constitution about confiscation without trial and conviction. Mr. Chase has evidently the inside track and he is determined to hold it.—Wash. Cor. Boston Post.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 14th says there are indications of an early frost—indications that in other years have never failed—such as the early appearance of snipe and wild fowl in our woods and water courses, and the fever has but a few short weeks longer in which to continue its work of death.

We heard months ago that Gen. Butler, in the presence of some statesmen of the Republican party, of whom Mr. Sumner was one, suggested the formation of a party, the cardinal point of whose faith should be repudiation.—N. Y. Mercury.

Santa Anna, it is thought, will escape with his life, but lose his property.

JUDGE REESE AND GENERAL POPE.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 23—P. M.

Judge Reese, of the Superior Court, has notified General Pope that he cannot carry out the recent jury order, the same being violative of the laws of Georgia, and the State and Federal Constitution.

Judge Reese claims that registration is entirely optional and not compulsory, and because a man who may be otherwise a loyal citizen does not register, is no reason wey he should be excluded from service on the jury

Gen. Pope replies that the military bill gives him the right to set aside any law of the State, which comes in conflict with the military bills.—Orders 53 and 55 were issued by the power vested in him by Congress.

He considers the Jury orders necessary to the execution of the Reconstruction Acts, which became laws in the manner provided by the Constitution. As the question of constitutionality has been presented to the Supreme Court and that tribunal has decided that it had not jurisdiction, the further consideration of that question by subordinate Military or Judicial officers is scarcely admissible. Gen. Pope concludes by requesting Judge Reese to carry out his orders.

Reese in a second letter goes over similar ground, arriving at the conclusion, that he cannot conform to Pope's orders, but shall continue the duties of his office as heretofore, till prohibited.

Pope then requested Reese to resign, which he refused to do, but considers his letter as a positive prohibition against the further exercise of judicial powers.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOES, 75 cts. to $1.25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "back again"; some say they have "hit the nail on the head"; some "selling out at cost"; some to "make room for a new stock"; some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 31, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attached with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, gloomy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and Itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country, have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad sutter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. P. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunbar, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

SONG OF STEAM.

The following fine poem, by Geo. W. Cutter, of Covington, Ky., Blackwood has pronounced "the best lyric of the century:"

Harness me down with your iron bands,
  Be sure of your curb and rein,
For I scorn the strength of your puny hands,
  As a tempest scorns a chain;
How I laughed as I lay concealed from sight,
  For many a countless hour,
At the childish boasts of human might,
  And the pride of human power.

When I saw an army upon the land,
  A navy upon the seas,
Creeping along, a snail-like band,
  Or waiting a wayward breeze;
When I saw the peasant reel
  With the toil which he faintly bore,
As he turned at the tardy wheel,
  Or toiled at the weary oar;

When I measured the panting courser's speed,
  The flight of the carrier dove,
As they bore a law a king decreed,
  Or the lines of impatient love;
I could but think how the world would feel,
  As these were outstripped afar
When I should be bound to the rushing keel,
  Or chained to the flying car!

Ha! ha! ha! They found me at last;
  And they invited me forth, at length,
And I rushed to my throne with a thunder blast,
  And laughed in my iron strength!
Oh! then ye saw a wondrous change
  On the earth and ocean wide,
Where now my fiery armies range,
  Nor wait for wind or tide.

Hurrah! hurrah! the waters o'er
  The mountain steep decline;
Time—space have yielded to my power—
  The giant streams of the queenly West,
And the Orient floods divine.

The ocean pales where'er I sweep,
  To hear my strength rejoice,
And monsters of the briny deep
  Cower trembling at my voice.
I carry the wealth and ore of earth,
  The thought of the godlike mind,
The wind lags after my going forth,
  The lightning is left behind.

In the darksome depths of the fathomless mine
  My tiresome arm doth play,
Where the rocks ne'er saw the sun's decline,
  On the dawn of the glorious day;
I bring earth's glittering jewels up
  From the hidden caves below,
And I make the fountain's granite cup
  With a crystal gush o'erflow.

I blow the bellows, I forge the steel,
  In all the shops of trade;
I hammer the ore and turn the wheel
  Where my arms of strength are made;
I manage the furnace, the mill, the mint—
  I carry, I spin, I weave;
And all my doings I put in print
  On every Saturday eve.

I've no muscles to weary, no breasts to decay,
  No bones to be "laid on the shelf,"
And soon I intend you may "go and play,"
  While I manage the world myself.
But harness me down with your iron bands
  Be sure of your curb and rein,
For I scorn the strength of your puny hands,
  As the tempest scorns a chain.

COURTSHIP AND LOVE.

This is a fine sentiment uttered in the play "Under the Gaslight," now very popular in New York, on the subject of courtship and love:

"Courtship," says the sad girl—who has had a woful experience—"is the text from which the whole solemn sermon of married life takes its theme. As lovers are discontented and unhappy so will they be as wives and husbands. So as you would be happy all the years of your life, listen to the voice advising you:

"Let the woman you look upon be wise or vain, beautiful or homely, rich or poor, she has but one thing which she can really give or refuse—her heart! Her beauty, her wit, her accomplishments she may sell to you—but her love is the treasure without money and without price! She only asks in return that when you look upon her your eyes shall speak a mute devotion, that when you address her your voice shall be gentle, loving and kind. That you shall not despise her because she cannot understand all at once your vigorous thoughts and ambitious designs—for when misfortune and evil have defeated your greatest purposes, her love remains to console you.

"You look to the trees for strength and grandeur—do not despise the flowers because their fragrance is all they have to give—but it is the only earthly thing that God permits us to carry beyond the grave."

THE RIGHT PERSUASION.—In terrible agony, a soldier lay dying in the hospital. A visitor asked him, What Church are you of? "Of the Church of Christ," he replied. "I mean of what persuasion are you?" then inquired the visitor. "Persuasion!" said the dying man, as his eyes looked heavenward, beaming with love to the Saviour: "I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor heighth nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate me from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always

Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hood, of Surry County, speaks for itself:—

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five steamers each week to and from New York

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York, by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and MORE. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press, rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

An Act supplementary to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

Which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

ST. CLEMENT'S HALL,

A FIRST CLASS SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

ELLICOTTS MILLS, MD.,

(NEAR BALTIMORE.)

THIS SCHOOL WAS ESTABLISHED FOR the purpose of enabling SOUTHERN BOYS, at a comparatively moderate cost, to enjoy all the advantages that are afforded in the best and most expensive Northern Schools.

It has been, already, eminently successful. The Hall is a large and beautiful edifice. The Household is under the immediate charge of the Rector and his wife. The pupils are all received as members of the family; strict attention is given to their health, personal habits and to the cultivation of courteous manners, while every care is taken to unite the comforts of a home, with the strict discipline of a School. In these respects, this Institution claims to have no superior in the country.

The Teachers are all gentlemen of fine classical attainments, and the instruction is of the most thorough kind.

Circulars, containing full particulars, with references and list of pupils, will be sent to any address.

REV. J. AVERY SHEPHERD, A. M., Rector.
